Information for Employers

If an employee doesn't return this form

If your employee starts work on or after 1 November 2021, most employers must request the employee's stapled super fund details before making a super contribution.

If an employee doesn't provide you with the correct details, or the fund can't accept your contributions, you will need to request their stapled super fund details from the ATO.

If the ATO advises the employee does not have a stapled super fund, you can make the payment to your nominated default super fund. For more information, visit ato.gov.au/stapledsuperfund

Setting up and paying super for your business

You can choose any eligible super fund as your chosen fund for your employer to pay your super into. It's an important decision that can affect your retirement savings.

If you choose not to complete this form

If you are a new employee and choose not to complete this form, your employer will check with the ATO if you have an existing super fund. If you do, your super can be paid into this fund, called your 'stapled super fund'.

- If you have multiple funds the ATO will choose one of them as your stapled fund – it may not be the fund you would prefer.
- If the ATO is unable to identify a stapled fund, your employer will be advised to pay your super into their default super fund listed in Section C.
- If you started your current employment before 1 November 2021, your employer will pay your super into their default super fund listed in Section C.

For more information about stapled super funds, visit ato.gov.au/individuals/super

Providing your TFN

You don't have to provide your TFN, but if your super fund does not have it, your super contributions may be taxed at a higher rate and you won't be able to make personal contributions to your fund.

Your TFN also makes it easier to keep track of any super accounts in your name so that you receive all your super when you retire.

Finding lost super

It is important to keep track of your super. If you've ever changed your name, address or job, you may have lost track of some of your super.

Having multiple super accounts could mean you are paying fees you are unaware of, which could reduce your retirement savings. Your super is your money, you should check it regularly.

If you have more than one super fund

Having more than one super account could mean you're paying multiple fees and charges, which may reduce your retirement savings. You can consolidate multiple accounts using our ATO online services through myGov.

Before you consolidate accounts, you may want to seek advice on fees this may incur or if you will lose any valuable insurance.

Your privacy

This form is provided as a means for employees to provide necessary superannuation information to their employer. The ATO does not collect this information.
