Vanguard Super is a complying super fund

Vanguard Super is governed by a Trust Deed dated 22 July 2022 (Trust Deed), as amended from time to time.

Vanguard Super Pty Ltd is the Trustee of Vanguard Super.

This notice confirms that Vanguard Super is a complying, resident and regulated superannuation fund within the meaning of the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993 (the SIS Act).

Vanguard Super is authorised to offer a MySuper product which is called 'Vanguard MySuper'.

Vanguard Super meets the minimum insurance standards required for choice of super fund so that employers can nominate Vanguard Super as their default super fund.

The Trust Deed allows benefits to be rolled over or transferred into Vanguard Super.

Important information for employers

You can choose to submit your employee contributions using your existing service, providing it meets the Government's minimum data standards.

Superchoice is Vanguard Super's online payment solution that allows the choice of making one payment for all employees—regardless of the super fund they belong to.

You can register for Superchoice at www.superchoiceservices.com.au.
